

LMYC WINDWARRIOR

Monthly Update

29/11/2024

SCRATCH AND PERFORMANCE RACING

The first regatta of November was abandoned due to no breeze, with following regattas sailed in light sea breezes finishing with a light nor westerly.

After 10 regattas and 3 drops of the Spring Series racing, Dave Anstey was the winner on scratch, with Brad Quiggin a close second and Adam Cooke third.

In the performance racing Marshall Harper was the dominant winner, with Andrew Poynting second and Barry McCarthy third.

PURSUIT RACING

The eleventh and twelfth rounds of the Orrell Cup were sailed on the 7th and 21st November. The days winners were Marshall Harper and Chris Villa. At the half way mark for the season Andrew Poynting has established himself as the frontrunner followed by Eric Law second, with Brad Quiggin third.

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

The Wind Warrior World Championship was held on Sunday, the 9th and 10th of November. Fifteen local competitors were joined by four Kiwis and one Victorian. After 19 races and 3 drops the results were Paul Jones 1st, Paul Morrish 2nd, Dave Anstey 3rd.

SAILORS

We welcome the return of a competitor from many years ago, Russel Boyd (Sail Number 427).

SPRING SERIES STATISTICS

There was a total of 19 individual competitors with an average of 12 competitors per regatta for the Spring Series. A total of 70 pointscore races and 18 pursuit races were sailed giving a combined total of 98 races that were sailed in our Spring series.

Marshall Harper

